REV. LAURA DAVIS

This morning we welcome Rev. Laura Davis, our speaker, as we celebrate Women's Missionary Union Focus Week, February 10th-17th.

She serves as the Director of Missions Involvement with the Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia. Rev. Davis received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from (then) Mary Washington College where she was very involved with Baptist Campus Ministry. She received her Master of Divinity degree from Campbell University Divinity School and a Preschool and Children's Ministry certification from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

While attending Campbell University Divinity School, Rev. Davis had the opportunity to work with WMU of North Carolina in the role of summer camp director and as a secretary to the consultants. It was there she put a name to her passion of missions and is excited to continue to live out God's calling in her life through the work of WMUV! She desires to equip and inspire women to live out their God given passions in their communities. Rev. Davis is married to Rev. Kenny Davis, pastor at Bybee's Road Baptist Church, and they have three children.
