NEW YEAR BLESSINGS

Dear GPBC Friends,

Many memories make me nostalgic at Christmas but none exceeds the love and appreciation I have for you and the many ways you remember me throughout the entire year.

May you always remain the loving and caring church which you are known to be.

May the New Year bring extra measures of blessing to you and may you continue to work for our Lord.

Love and Prayers,
Sarah Starkey

Gloucester United Emergency Shelter Team (GUEST) has just begun its 7th winter shelter season and is already sheltering 15-20 people that include a blind resident, an 83 year old, and three children under the age of 5. Many people in our community face homelessness every day.

Rachel and L.T. Wells will prepare breakfast every morning with the Ruritan Club's support in paying for the breakfast supplies.
