

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

¹⁶Rejoice always, ¹⁷Pray continually, ¹⁸Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Every person in every state, in every nation around the world are experiencing the same heartaches, disappointments, losses, days of uncertainty. The only thing certain is that we have Jesus! Let us rejoice and give thanks to God for giving us his Son.

Are you depending on God? Letting him control?

Are you praising God for what he will accomplish?

We take so much for granted, yet we have so much. I pray that we can all take the time to look around at all we have and thank God; reflect on his goodness. He is giving us this opportunity to spend more time with him, to think about our priorities and if he slipped away from being first put him back where he belongs. Let's take full advantage of this time and draw nearer to him.

"Father, there is so much changing around us that we don't understand. I pray for my family, friends, those I do not know, especially for those that don't know you. Help us to be grateful that you are in control, that you never change. We can count on your provisions, you are holding us with your righteous hand. Help us to be more aware. Help us to remain faithful and trust in you alone. Amen"
