

THE VISION

August 2020

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them and...teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you...”

Amen. Matthew 28:19-20

August Encouragement

As each of you are trying to navigate the Coronavirus, the leadership at Gloucester Point Baptist Church is dealing with making the best decisions we can to continue our ministry. We are happy that we have been able to regather for our Sunday morning worship service. On July 5, our first Sunday back at church, we had 38 in attendance. On July 12, we had 49. We have put into practice Governor Northam’s mandate to wear masks and social distancing. I thank each of you for complying with these guidelines.

We understand that there are those of you that are not ready to return or for health reasons you feel you should stay at home. We are continuing to record our services and put them online for you to view. If you do not have the internet, and would like to view the worship service, we show it at the church on Tuesday at 10:30 am. Please call Sue and let her know so we can plan for you to attend.

I thank you for the many encouraging texts, cards, and emails I have received from you. Many of you have expressed your appreciation for the worship services as well as the Wednesday night devotions.

It is always good to hear from you. I appreciate your prayers and uplifting words that help and encourage me.

At this time, we still do not know when it will be safe enough to gather for Sunday School or for other church activities. I want to thank everyone that has contributed to our Worship Services, Sunday School lessons, Children’s and Youth Ministries, Music Ministry, Audio Visual and Website, Outreach Ministry, construction of our new fellowship wing, and church maintenance. I also want to thank Sue, our secretary. She has continued to do the church office work and keep us advised of our prayer list, the Vision, the church mailings and all of those other things a church secretary does.

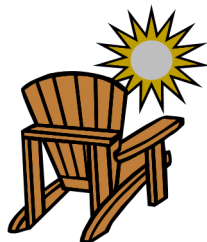

My prayer is that you continue to stay safe and healthy. I am here if anyone has any needs that I can help you with.

Deacon's Devotional

Do you remember Hurricane Isabel in 2003? Gloucester was heavily damaged by this devastating storm. Tom and I lost 30 large trees on our property. One tree fell on the house we were building and buckled the side of the framing. The next Summer, while Tom was working with a crew to fix and finish the house, I walked over to take some lemonade to the men. On the way, I passed one of the downed trees. In the heat, it had started springing up shoots from the giant trunk laying on its side.

For some odd reason, I had an emotional reaction to this. It made me angry. Didn't that tree know it was dead? To me, it represented false hope, a teasing hope, hope without substance. There was no hope for that tree. Its roots were ripped from the ground by an act of God. It was never going to right itself. The effort was fruitless. It gnawed at me. A few weeks later, I found this verse spoken by a man well versed in loss:

"For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that its tender shoots will not cease.
Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,
Yet at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant. Job 14:7-9, 14

"Yet at the scent of water"...the moisture from rain and dew allowed a seed to unfurl, a shoot to pop up out of the hard, unyielding trunk. Water softened the wood causing this mighty tree to become unlikely soil for these stubborn shoots. Out of death, came life.

When we have tremendous loss; a death of a dream, or a loved one, or even the correction of a nation, we don't understand the reason. It makes no earthly sense. The hurricanes of our lives destroys our strong, secure, independent structure. What a loss! We are uprooted and fall hard with the jolting thud of finality.

Is there any hope for a tree? Yes, dear one, there is; It comes with the scent of water. Water is a picture of new life, of healing, of the Holy Spirit's work in our lives.

- Jesus said "out of your belly will flow rivers of living water..." John 7:38
- Ezekiel saw water pouring out from under the altar of the temple, creating a river teeming with life. Ezekiel 47:1-12
- He (God) leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. Psalm 23

Something new is happening in our chaotic and misguided world. In the midst of death and loss, Hope rises. You might not see it yet. Your focus remains on the loss. That's ok. My prayer for you is, when you're ready, that you will look for it.

He will help you hope again.

With Love,
Sandy McElfresh
