

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALLED BUSINESS MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2023

1. The Pastor Search Committee has unanimously voted to present a candidate to the church on March 12, 2023 and is making a Recommendation that an additional $3700 in funds be approved by the church to reimburse travel expenses of the candidate and his family for the presentation weekend. The request will cover air-fare, lodging, and local transportation expenses.
2. The Personnel Committee has recruited applications for the Part-Time Secretary Position. The applicant being presented to you is a Christian and has 31 years experience as an Administrative Assistant/Secretary. Eight of those years were at a Presbyterian Church in New Jersey. She has utilized Word, Excel and Publisher in preparing reports, bulletins and flyers in her positions at the New Jersey District Resource Center and a legal firm. She was also responsible for ordering and maintaining supplies, maintained calendars and all office duties. She performed our work samples with accuracy. She is a graduate of Rutgers University with a degree in Psychology and a two year program at the Lincoln Business School for Executive Assistants and Legal Secretaries.

The Personnel Committee, after prayerful consideration, makes the following Recommendations for approval by the Church Body.

- a. Gloucester Point Baptist Church to make an offer of employment to Sheri Titone to fill the position of Part-Time Secretary effective March 1, 2023 with a starting salary of $13,500.00.
- b. Mrs. Titone has requested that her office hours on Wednesday be changed to 12:30pm—3:30pm so that she could continue to assist in leading the Community Women's Bible Study. The Personnel Committee recommends that this change be granted with the understanding that a new pastor may make adjustments after review with Mrs. Titone.
