GPBC WMU ANNOUNCES THE ANNUAL PBA ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS EMPHASIS 2023

“The Kissinger Fund” - GPBC Goal $800.00

Week of Prayer for PBA Associational Missions
May 21st – 28th

Each year we set aside a week in May to ask our churches to pray for the work of the Peninsula Baptist Association. Our Mission Statement is: A Network of Churches, connecting and equipping churches for Kingdom ministry. We particularly ask that you pray for our staff:

Chuck Harrison (Director) – as he resources our churches to fulfill their visions.

Mike Haywood (Summer Ministry and Senior Adults Director)
– as he leads our summer team.

Jim Moynihan (Church and Community Ministry Director)
– as he guides our churches to connect with the people in their communities.

Mike Mines (Administrator) – as he continues to oversee our facilities and activities.

Rose Chang (Bookkeeper) – as she continues to steward the financial resources of the PBA.

We hope to use funds from the offering to help churches begin new initiatives to reach into their communities. We also want to encourage the planting of new churches that are focused on reaching their immediate communities. By providing small grants to new churches we may help them fulfill the mission God has given them.

Envelopes for your offering will be provided in the May 21, 2023 Bulletin. Make sure to document your GPBC Giving Envelope # on the outside of the envelope.
